

Dr. Pamela Moye

Pamela S. Moye, PhD, is a Licensed Clinical Addictions therapist specializing in military sexual trauma, individual, couples and family addictions. She is a consultant and Certified Tele-Mental Health Therapist.

Pamela has over 30 years experience as an addictions therapist. As a graduate of North Carolina A&T State University with a doctoral degree in Rehabilitation Counseling and Rehabilitation Counselor Education has a cognate focus in rehabilitation psychology and behavioral medicine, Pamela is currently serving as the program coordinator for the North Carolina A&T State University Opioid Workforce Expansion Professionals Program in the Department of Counseling. Among her areas of expertise are individual, family and group counseling dealing with mental health/substance abuse disorders; adolescents involved in the juvenile justice system; and, mental health/substance abuse as it relates to domestic violence, both as the victim/survivor and/or perpetrator. Read More

Pamela is an evidence-based practitioner who is a solution-focused addictions therapist, Pamela has presented at AHEC trainings and to general audiences on topics of addictions and domestic violence.

Pamela's therapeutic approach is to provide support and practical feedback to help clients effectively address personal life challenges. She integrates complementary methodologies and techniques to offer a highly personalized approach tailored to each client. With compassion and understanding, Pamela empowers each individual to help them build on their strengths and attain the personal growth they are committed to accomplishing.